What is Honors Research Humanities?

- Humanities IA Honors Research will be a project-based course focused on research in the Arts, Humanities, or Social Sciences. The course will focus on Qualitative Research as opposed to Quantitative Research. Students will utilize the following strategies to develop their pinnacle projects: Design Thinking Projects to address social needs; Document, Literary, Media and Artifact Analysis; Ethnographies and Case Studies; and/or Research -based extended Creative Projects and Productions (Art/Photography, Creative Writing etc.) as opposed to using the Scientific Method and Experimentations. There will be a strong emphasis on written discourse with an end goal of students submitting their works for publication.
